Rep. Blackman Thanks Governor Ducey for Signing Bill to Protect PSPRS

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX – Representative Walt Blackman (R-6) today thanked Governor Ducey for signing HB 2422 into law.

HB 2422, which was sponsored by Representative Blackman, is an annual compliance bill to maintain the tax-exempt status of the Public Safety Personnel Retirement System (PSPRS) and the Corrections Officer Retirement Plan (CORP).

“I am proud Governor Ducey has signed into law this important bill to protect those who protect us,” said Representative Blackman. “With the problem of unfunded liabilities still being a reality in Arizona, especially in rural parts of the state, I am proud to have sponsored this legislation to ensure these retirement systems stay intact into the future.”
